

WJEC Level 3 Applied Diploma in Criminology

Course Details

WJEC Level 3 Applied Diploma in Criminology is a qualification with elements of psychology, law and sociology that complements studies in humanities.

There are four mandatory units.

Unit 1 – Changing Awareness of Crime

The first unit will enable the learner to demonstrate understanding of different types of crime, influences on perceptions of crime and why some crimes are unreported.

Unit 2 – Criminological Theories

The second unit will allow learners to gain an understanding of why people commit crime, using their knowledge of what they have learned in unit 1.

Unit 3 – Crime Scene to Courtroom

The third unit will provide an understanding of the criminal justice system from the moment a crime has been identified to the verdict. Learners will develop the understanding and skills needed to examine information to review the justice of verdicts in criminal cases.

Unit 4 – Crime and Punishment

The final unit, learners will apply their understanding of the awareness of criminality, criminological theories, and the process of bringing an accused to court to evaluate the effectiveness of social control to deliver criminal justice policy.

Each unit within the qualification has an applied purpose which acts as a focus for the learning in the unit. The applied purpose demands learning related to authentic case studies. It also requires learners to consider how the use and application of their learning impacts on themselves, other individuals, employers, society, and the environment.
