Year/Term	Unit	Intent
Overall		This first unit explores: Philosophy, Arguments for the Existence of God and Religious Teachings on Relationships and Families in the 21st Century through a study of Catholic Christianity. Students will reflect on the significance and importance of the various beliefs, issues and practices to Catholics today. This should include reference to how the Bible informs a Christian's understanding of the topics and how approaches to the issues are underpinned by philosophical arguments and ethical theory as applicable. Students should compare and contrast the areas of ethics and/or philosophy within Catholic Christianity with wider Christian perspectives and non-religious views as outlined in the content below. Students should also recognise that within Catholic Christianity there may be more than one perspective in the way beliefs and teachings are understood and expressed. Common and divergent views within the wider Christian tradition in the way beliefs and teachings are understood and expressed should be included throughout, including reference to Orthodox, Protestant and other Christian traditions. The second area of study is comprised of an in-depth study of Judaism as a lived religion in the United Kingdom and throughout the world. Students should recognise that Judaism is one of the many religious traditions in Great Britain. Students should also recognise that within Judaism there may be more than one perspective in the way beliefs and teachings are understood and expressed. Common and divergent views within Judaism in the way beliefs and teachings are understood and expressed should be included throughout, including reference to Orthodox, Reform and Liberal traditions.
