Introduction

In order to comply with the Equality Act of 2010 this plan is in place to support people with disabilities.

- (a) The Governing Body has three key duties towards disabled students/staff/visitors:
 - i. Not to treat disabled students/staff less favorably for a reason related to their disability.
 - ii. To make reasonable adjustments for disabled students, so that they are not at a substantial disadvantage.
 - iii. To plan to increase access to education for disabled students.
- (b) These duties require schools to produce an Accessibility Plan that identifies the action the school intends to take to increase access for those with a disability. The areas include:
 - i. increasing the extent to which disabled students can participate in the school curriculum.
 - ii. improving the environment of the school to increase the extent to which disabled students can take advantage of education and associated services.
 - iii. improving the delivery to disabled students of information which is provided in writing for students who are not disabled.
- (c) At all times the school will also be equally aware of the needs of disabled staff, parents and visitors.

Purpose of the Plan

- (a) To reduce and eliminate barriers to access to the curriculum and to full participation in the school community for students and prospective students with a disability and to ensure school practices are fully inclusive.
- (b) To provide a caring and friendly environment.
- (c) To provide resources to cater for the needs of the individual students.
- (d) To promote an understanding of disabilities throughout the school and an awareness of the needs of students with a disability.

Principles

- (a) Compliance with the Equality Act 2010 is consistent with the school's aims and policies.
- (b) The school recognises and values parents' knowledge of their child's disability and its effect on his/her ability to carry out normal activities and respects the parents' and child's right to confidentiality.
- (c) The school provides all students with a broad and balanced curriculum, differentiated, and adjusted to meet the needs of individual students and their preferred learning styles; and endorses the key principles underpinning the development of a more inclusive curriculum.
- (d) setting suitable learning challenges.
- (e) responding to students' diverse learning needs.

- (f) overcoming potential barriers to learning and assessment for individuals and groups of students.
