MONDAY MISSION 23rd September - Theme of the Week

Jesus says that anyone who welcomes a child, welcomes him. What do you think that means? Jesus is in all of us. No matter who we are, where we come from, whether we are rich or poor, old or young. Even the youngest person is special and important because they are loved by God.

Let us pray

God of hope, we know that all people are important, because they are loved by you.

Show us how to help others to see this too, so that the world can be a fairer place for all your children.

Amen.

Your Mission:

What will you do this week to show that all people are important no matter who they are?

Mark 9:37

"Whoever welcomes these children, welcomes me. Whoever welcomes me, welcomes the One who sent me."

TRADITIONAL TUESDAY 24th September

Glory Be

to the Father,
and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning,
is now,
and ever shall be,
world without end.

Amen.

WONDERFUL WEDNESDAY 25th September- Carlo Acutis

On Monday, some students travelled to Manchester to visit the relics of Carlo Acutis. He is due to be made a Saint next year and he is the only Saint that has worn jeans and Nike trainers!

Watch the video to find out more about him.

Lord, we thank you for giving us, Carlo,
a model of life for young people,
and a message of love for all.
You made him fall in love with your son Jesus, making the Eucharist his "highway to heaven."
Receive his prayer for us.
Look above all upon the poor, whom he loved and assisted.
And make our joy full, raising Carlo among the saints of your Church, so that his smile shines again for us to the glory of your name.
Amen.

THANKFUL THURSDAY 26th September

Yesterday was world rivers day.

Rivers and lakes are a vital source of freshwater for life on Earth. But did you know they hold less than 1% of the world's water? Most (over 99%, in fact) is in the salty ocean or frozen in our polar ice caps.

That's why it's super important that we protect our rivers and look after the freshwater our planet provides.

God, we thank you for rivers and the drips of water we all share that keep us alive.
Amen

Francis Friday 27th September - Feast of St Vincent de Paul

Let us Pray
We pray that each day,
we make the choices and take the actions that will bring an end to poverty and hunger, and lead us all towards a fairer world.
Be with us, Lord,
as we face your challenge and learn how to live
our lives in love.
Amen.
+

We can make a difference if we work together in school to help the poor and put our faith into action.

Gospel Mark 9: 30-37

Jesus Again Foretells His Death and Resurrection

³⁰ They went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; ³¹ for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, “The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.” ³² But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

Who Is the Greatest?

³³ Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, “What were you arguing about on the way?” ³⁴ But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest. ³⁵ He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, “Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.” ³⁶ Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, ³⁷ “Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.”
